KATH POWDERLY POTTERY WORKSHOP

Kath Powderly, a very talented artist from Wagga Wagga, held a one day Pottery workshop at our school yesterday. Students and staff all made boats out of clay ably assisted by Kath, especially the staff! This day was funded by CAP.

Kath brought over a mini display of some of her beautiful works.

Some of Kath's handiwork

The day started with the students drawing a boat of the future with blue ink, focusing on the hulls. They then had to make a list of all of the things they would take on the boat – mums and dads were usually top of the list! Pets featured strongly as did food, water and clothes. Some thought of Panadol and some thought of more specific types of food, such as cake.

The next step was to sculpt the boat and various items to be taken, out of clay.

Yours may be good Shane, but wait until you see mine!

The day finished with the boats being painted.

Budding artists and artist at work

An excellent day was had by all. One student thought it was the best day of his entire school life so far!

This sort of work pleases me immensely!

Nearly finished and happy!

Kath Powderly will be back in Term 4 for a two day workshop. Further details will follow.

Now I believe this is what you call a masterpiece!

Ditto!

A hard days work enjoyed by all
