Principal's Report

Welcome to the 2017 school year at Carrathool Public School. I hope you all enjoyed your Christmas holiday and are ready to face yet another busy year. My name is Mary-Ann Headon and I will be relieving Principal for 2017. I am excited about the challenges ahead and look forward to learning with your children. Remembering staff member's names this year should not be a problem for the students with three Mrs Headons to call for! Mrs Bev Headon will be teaching on Wednesdays, Mrs Sharyn Headon is in the office and assisting in the classroom 4 days per week and myself 5 days per week. Mrs Paula Clarke will teach 2 days per week and Mrs Mary Gilbert will assist in the classroom 1 day per week and when necessary. Mr Keith Warner is taking magnificent care of our school grounds and Mrs Theresa Lee is our much valued cleaner. Mrs Marion Wythes is teaching casually this year.

This year we welcome Eliza Rawle to Kindergarten. Eliza has settled effortlessly into school routine and has already started learning sounds and words. Eliza enjoys reading her readers and joins in discussions with the other students.

Our School Rule Indicators

Every school needs to have rules for students to follow in order to create a harmonious learning environment in which students can achieve their best. The students at Carrathool Public School have decided upon the following rules to maximise their achievement and do their best:

- 1. I follow instructions
- 2. I respect people and property
- 3. I use appropriate language.

Please discuss our school rules with your children at home.

Upcoming Events

- 17 February – Swimming Carnival at Hay for all children turning 8 and older this year.
- 8 March - Phil Kettle Writing Workshop at Booligal. Phil Kettle is the author of the Too Cool and Marcy series, loved by children everywhere.
